Northfield Institute of Technology - Admissions Guide 2026 (fictional).

Tuition fee at Northfield is 250,000 rupees per semester for all undergraduate programmes.

The application deadline for the fall intake is 15 July 2026.

Applicants need a minimum entry test score of 60 percent to be considered.

The sports complex at Northfield is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The sports complex at Northfield is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The sports complex at Northfield is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The sports complex at Northfield is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The sports complex at Northfield is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The sports complex at Northfield is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report.

Northfield offers a merit scholarship covering 50 percent of tuition for the top 10 percent of applicants.

The hostel fee is 40,000 rupees per month including meals, and the campus has 6,000 students.

The sports complex at Northfield is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The sports complex at Northfield is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The sports complex at Northfield is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The sports complex at Northfield is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The sports complex at Northfield is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The sports complex at Northfield is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report.