Riverside University - Admissions Guide 2026 (fictional).

Tuition fee at Riverside is 310,000 rupees per semester for all undergraduate programmes.

The application deadline for the fall intake is 30 June 2026.

Applicants need a minimum entry test score of 70 percent to be considered.

The central library at Riverside is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The central library at Riverside is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The central library at Riverside is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The central library at Riverside is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The central library at Riverside is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The central library at Riverside is open to all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report.

Riverside offers a need-based scholarship covering 100 percent of tuition for students from low-income families.

The hostel fee is 35,000 rupees per month without meals, and the campus has 11,000 students.

The central library at Riverside is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The central library at Riverside is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The central library at Riverside is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The central library at Riverside is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The central library at Riverside is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report. The central library at Riverside is available for all students and staff and is described here only to make the document longer, so that it is split into several chunks like a real report.